

UNESCO World Conference on Education for Sustainable Development – Moving into the Second Half of the UN Decade

31 March – 2 April 2009, Bonn, Germany

Public Programme

The "UNESCO World Conference on Education for Sustainable Development – Moving into the Second Half of the UN Decade" will be held in Bonn, Germany, from 31 March to 2 April 2009. Organizers of the conference are UNESCO and the German Federal Ministry of Education and Research, in cooperation with the German Commission for UNESCO.

Institutions organizing activities in Bonn related to ESD before, during and after the World Conference are invited to inform us about these in order to promote them via this website. Activities could for example be exhibitions or other cultural events, panel discussions, guided tours through institutions etc. Public programme activities need to be organized and funded by the requesting institution and do not need to be accredited by the Conference organizers.

To have your event advertised on the Conference website, please voice your interest by filling out this form. Information on your event will be published on the conference website as soon as processed.

AGUM-network c/o LUMBRICUS, NUA NRW, Siemensstr. 5, D- 45659 Recklinghausen

Date and time of event:

31.3. - 2.4.2009, 10:00 -16 :30

Short description (700 characters including spaces):

Mobile Environmental Education Projects (MEEPs) with their specialised technical equipment and educational methods form an attractive means of conveying ESD. Representing the network of mobile educational projects (AGUM), which exist in many countries throughout the world, LUMBRICUS, the rolling classroom from North-Rhine Westphalia, allows a glimpse into its hands-on experiments for ESD and provides information on the international network of MEEPs.
